

Find a teaching professional here

Golf lessons are the best investment you can make for your game. No matter what your experience level, you can improve your game for the rest of your life with proper golf instruction. What better way to start or end the season than with a solid golf swing. Finding a teacher is like finding a doctor, you will want to find one with a teaching philosophy that matches your goals and temperament. For beginners it's important to learn the fundamentals, for more advanced players it might be that little tweak that the video lesson can give you. Playing lessons can incorporate some fast track fixes for all parts of your game. Whatever your needs are, you will benefit from taking quality lessons from an experienced professional instructor. In order to help you find a teacher that best matches your needs we've put together this group of listings of some of the best teachers in your area.

Semiahmoo Resort

Jeff Coston – The Jeff Coston Golf Academy officially opened at the beautiful Semiahmoo Resort in 1994 and has been there since. Prior to Jeff's 16 years at the resort, he played the PGA Tour and was a winner on the Nationwide Tour. Jeff is a 12 time Pacific Northwest PGA Player of the Year. He is also the all time major tournament winner in Pacific Northwest golf history. Mike Bender the 2009 National PGA Teacher of the Year and coach to Masters Champion Zack Johnson and recent tour winner Jonathon Byrd states "Jeff is one of the very best instructors in America." Jeff's hourly rates are $150 per hour for an adult and $100 for a junior. Your "Inside Golf" Special: bring this ad and you will receive four lessons for $500. A $150 saving. David Gibson – PGA Class "A" Member Teaching Professional David Gibson has been a PGA member since 1971. During the 25 years he spent as a Head Golf Professional at Butte, Twin Lakes and Meridian Valley Country Clubs, David developed an outstanding reputation as a player and teacher. His 13 years of full-time teaching at Riverbend has brought his lesson total to some 30,000 instructional sessions. David emphasizes a simplified approach to learning the fundamentals of the golf swing and short game. As a former PGA Tour Player and PNW Section Major Title Winner, he understands what it takes to accomplish the goals of all golfers. His ability to "coach" students sets him apart from other professionals in the industry. As a master of determining swing flaws and breakdowns, David coordinates an approach unique to each golfer leading to a successful resolution to their ailments. Whether it is work on the range, putting green or on the course, David is available to do whatever it takes to help you enjoy the game.

Eric Hinrichs – PGA Assistant Teaching Professional
Eric Hinrichs is a familiar face after spending the majority of his youth playing golf with his father, an accomplished amateur golfer, at Riverbend. After setting almost every golf record at Thomas Jefferson High School and winning his share of regional events, Eric decided to become a golf professional at an early age. For years, Eric has helped run Riverbend's 18-hole golf course and he has also helped coordinate Riverbend's junior golf camps, clinics and tournaments. In his 5th year of the PGA education program, Eric has ascertained a thorough understanding of the golf swing becoming one of the top left-handed players in the section and has assisted many high school and college players throughout their early careers. As a result of his abilities, Josh Immordino secured Eric as his caddie when he qualified as an alternate for the 2008 U.S. Open Championship. Eric's disposition and willingness make him a perfect fit for all your instructional needs.

Meadow Park Golf Course

Molly Miller – The Molly Miller Golf Academy.
253-327-8403 (www.eswingcoach.com)

Molly Miller was nominated 2010 LPGA Section Teacher of the Year. The Molly Miller Golf Academy provides world-class golf instruction at the Meadow Park Golf Course and Learning facility in Tacoma, Washington. As a LPGA member since 1992, I have given nearly 28,000 lessons. I have over 40 years of playing experience. I am one of two certified female instructors in the nation who teach golfers with disabilities including amputees, stroke and heart patients as well as neck and back injuries. My philosophy is simple; to promote the game I love, to as many new golfers as possible and to increase skills, confidence and ability to maximize fun to those who golf already.

Maplewood Golf Course

Mike Toll – Mike grew up in Bellevue attending Sammamish High School and Bellevue Community College. He turned Professional in 1984, became a class A PGA member in 1992 and has been Head PGA Professional at Maplewood since 1997. He provides golf lessons to individuals with all different ability levels. After a brief interview with students, he will determine how involved and what changes need to be made. His teaching philosophy is to work with basic swing principles such as grip, posture, alignment and ball position which for most players results in immediate improvement.

Kirk Gleason – Kirk is a Class "A" PGA Assistant Professional and has taught golfers of all abilities and skill levels for ten years. Maplewood is in a great location easily accessible from all areas with a great winter practice facility with heated and covered stalls. He is ready to work with anyone interested in learning golf to enhance their golfing experience.

Chris Hughes – Chris is a Class "A" PGA Assistant Professional, attaining his membership in 2000. Working at Maplewood has given him the opportunity to work with a wide range of golfers. Core fundamentals and a solid understanding of how to improve your game is what you can expect from him. For additional information give him a call at Maplewood Golf Course.

GolfTEC Southcenter

Jordan Cooper – Center Manager, Certified Personal Coach

Jordan was born and raised in Wenatchee, Wash. After 4 years of Varsity golf at Wenatchee High School, Jordan moved to San Diego to attend the Golf Academy of America. He graduated with an A.A.S. in Golf Complex Operations and Management in 2007. During his time at the Golf Academy, Jordan developed a passion for teaching. His search for a career that would allow him to fully dedicate himself to teaching led him to GolfTEC. Jordan has taught over 2,000 lessons with GolfTEC and conducted hundreds of Personal Club Fittings. He is a Titleist Performance Institute Certified Golf Fitness Instructor (one of only five Teaching Professionals in the state of Washington to be TPI Certified; four of whom are GolfTEC coaches). Jordan spends his spare time competing in PGA section events and his wintertime snowboarding. Jordan is excited to share his passion for the game and help all of his students improve. For more information about fees and instruction, please visit GolfTEC.com and see the GolfTEC ad in this issue.

Lyndon Bystrom – Certified Personal Coach – PGA Member

Lyndon, a PGA Member, comes to the Seattle area from Lexington, Kentucky where he was the Head Golf Professional at Andover Golf and Country Club. At Andover Lyndon conducted individual, group, and junior clinics to all members and guests. In addition to teaching, Lyndon also oversaw the golf operations of the member owned country club. Prior to Andover Lyndon served as an Assistant Golf Professional at Tanoan Country Club in Albuquerque, New Mexico. During his tenure at Tanoan, Lyndon developed his passion for teaching the game of golf. The feeling and enjoyment that people get out of playing better golf is why Lyndon loves to teach the game. Lyndon chose GolfTEC for the challenge of teaching full time. When Lyndon is not teaching he enjoys playing competitively in local PGA Section events. He is excited for the opportunity to bring his experience to the area and looks forward to helping all of his students improve and enjoy the game. For more information about fees and instruction, please visit GolfTEC.com and see the GolfTEC ad in this issue.
