Professional tours hit the Northwest in 2013 with a variety of tournaments

The LPGA Tour, Champions Tour and Web.com Tour will hit the Pacific Northwest with events, giving NW golf fans a chance to see some familiar faces along the way.

• The professionals start making their way to the Pacific Northwest with the Albertson's Boise Open set for July 25-28 at Hillcrest Country Club in Boise. That tournament is one of the Web.com's most popular events in terms of attendance and top players.

• Next up is the Boeing Classic, set for Aug. 23-25 at the TPC Snoqualmie Ridge just east of Seattle. The $2 million purse is one of the largest on the Champions Tour during the 2013 season. The Boeing Classic is an event that has been popular for both attracting the top players on the Champions Tour and some large crowds as well.

• The LPGA will visit the Portland area with the Portland Classic, Presented by Safeway. That event will be held Aug. 29-Sept. 1. The event had been held for years at Columbia Edgewater in Portland before moving the Pumpkin Ridge's Ghost Creek course a few years ago.
