Semiahmoo Resort gets a reprieve after sale gives it new look

Last June, new life was pumped back into Semiahmoo Resort in Blaine, Wash. After some hard times, the resort hotel closed keeping open only the two golf courses. But last June Wright Hotels, a Seattle-based management company, came to the rescue buying the resort and quickly added $6 million in improvements. Semiahmoo Resort was saved. This spring the newly renovated resort near the Washington-Canadian border is ready to show what it has become. For more see the web site www.semiahmoo.com.

Oregon has a wide variety of golf resorts

From the coast to Central Oregon, plenty of resorts

Editor's note: Inside Golf Newspaper has taken a look at all the golf resorts in Oregon and came up with a list of interesting things to look for when you make your visit.

Bandon Dunes Resort

When Bandon Dunes opened for play in 1999, the course with the scenic views of the Pacific Ocean in Bandon, Ore. was quickly voted among the best in the country.

When Pacific Dunes opened in 2001 next to Bandon Dunes, the new course received even higher praise and loftier awards. A third course, Bandon Trails, is up and running along the Oregon Coast and a fourth course called Old Macdonald opened three years ago.

Welcome to Bandon Dunes, home of four of the top golf courses in the country. In fact, a fifth course called Bandon Preserve, a 13-hole par-3 course, opened up for play last year.

All courses top the lists of every golf publication's best course list. There might not be much to see in and around the Bandon area, but there is the golf and it's enough. And golf in its purest form, with no golf carts allowed, a prevailing wind blowing off the Pacific Ocean and native fescue grasses growing along the fairways.

And if all that isn't enough, the Punch-bowl Putting Course is in play at Bandon Dunes and land has been acquired on the Coast for another golf course to be part of the Bandon Dunes family.

Salishan Resort

Salishan Golf Links offers a remodeled golf course and a terrific place to stay on the Oregon Coast in Gleneden Beach.

With its great ocean-side location, Salishan is a place that people keep coming back to for weekend getaways – with or without the golf clubs in the car.

The course underwent a major remodel by Peter Jacobsen and a new spa was added so guests could relax and revitalize their mind, body.

Eagle Crest Resort

There is no shortage of golf at Eagle Crest Resort in Redmond, located just north of Bend in Central Oregon.

The resort opened in the 1980s with its resort course and hotel. Since then, there have been some serious upgrades. The hotel is first class, an athletic center has been added and two golf courses have also been put into the mix.

The Resort Course is a solid public course while the newer Ridge course is a bit more challenging at nearly 7,000 yards.

Eagle Crest has also added what it calls a Challenge Course as well as an 18-hole putting course.

Brasada Ranch

Oregon saw a new golf resort open in the central part of the state in Brasada

Eagle Crest Resort in Redmond has two courses to choose from including a putting course and a 9-hole Challenge Course.

Resort at the Mountain offers skiing and golfing in one day; Black Butte Ranch has pair of golf courses to choose from Ranch in Redmond. All 18 holes of the Peter Jacobsen-Jim Hardy course were open for play in 2007.

The resort is a family paradise with lodging, restaurants, bike trails, tennis courts, swimming pools and more. Housing lots are selling quickly, too.

Resort at Mountain

The Resort at the Mountain is just a drive and wedge away from Mount Hood. In fact, during the spring and summer months, golfing and skiing are both possibilities in the same day.

But for just golf, the Resort at the Mountain has it all. With new renovations to the lodge, accommodations and golf course, the Resort at the Mountain is a first-class operation. The facility offers three different sets of nines to try, called Thistle, Foxglove and Pine Cone.

Black Butte Ranch Resort

One of Central Oregon's best hide-aways is Black Butte, located northwest of Bend. Located on nearly 2,000 acres, Black Butte is the perfect place for golfers and their families.

Black Butte comes complete with Black Butte Ranch (top) in Central Oregon and the Resort at the Mountain just east of Portland are two terrific golf resort options.

7 MILES WEST OF SISTERS, OREGON

Kah-Nee-Ta Resort is celebrating 50 years

miles of bicycle trails, swimming pools, tennis courts, horseback riding . . . and, of course, golf.

With two golf courses, Black Butte offers something for everyone. The Glaze Meadow Course is carved out of the trees while the Big Meadow course is routed through a meadow and provides great views of nearby mountains.

The resort has also come up with an eight-year plan for some scheduled changes. One of the first major projects at Black Butte was the addition of 74 bunkers at the Big Meadow course. Glaze Meadow shut down the course for a year while architect John Fought updated the course in 2007 and it now stretched over 7,000 yards.

One other major change is the addition of a recreation center at Glaze Meadow complete with a new pool, tennis courts, spa and more.

Crooked River Ranch

Crooked River Ranch offers Central Oregon golf in a stunning setting, just north of Bend. The course might not seem long (5,700 yards) but you need to keep it straight.

The par-4 fifth hole is a perfect example. It is a hole which says just 260 yards on the scorecard, but the Crooked River sits to the left and out of bounds marks the right.

Crooked River is a popular stop for people with RV's because of the full service amenities, which include tennis, swimming and hiking.

Pacific Northwest professional Chuck Milne shot a 59 in a tournament there in the summer of 2004.

Wildhorse Resort and Casino

Many golfers talk about the "game within the game," the mental challenges that make each round so enjoyable. But at the Wildhorse Resort and Casino in Pendleton, they also talk about the games after the game. Because at Wildhorse, you can play 18 holes of golf followed by a round of casino games.

Situated in the foothills of the Blue Mountains, Wildhorse's 7,112-yard course is a blend of Scottish Links and traditional American golf. The 18th hole is perhaps one of the top finishing holes in the Northwest, with a lake running along the right side and white sand bunkers guarding the approach.

Looking for more, the area is also home to the Pendleton Round-Up, a top attraction as well.

Kah-Nee-Ta Resort

Kah-Nee-Ta Resort opened in the early 1970s and since then has become a popular place for families, with its indoor and outdoor accommodations, Indian themes and great golf course. In fact, the resort is celebrating its 50th year anniversary in 2014.

Besides, it's hard to beat a place where the sun shines nearly every day and the rain stays away.

venturous, outdoor tee-pees are another way to stay. And the golf is a sun-splashed adventure.

Sunriver Resort

Sunriver is able to offer its guests a veritable hat trick of golf – three golf courses and all are treats.

In addition to the lodging, which includes anything from condo-type rooms to rental houses, Sunriver is a golfer's paradise with the public Woodlands and Meadows courses and the private Crosswater course. Crosswater, however, is open to resort guests. A new nine-holer has also opened up near Crosswater called Caldera Springs.

Families from up and down the West

Coast have targeted Sunriver as a popular destination stop, with its pools, tennis course, bike trails, horseback riding, river rafting and more.

Running Y Ranch Resort

The Running Y Ranch in Klamath Falls is one of the major contenders on the resort scene and has all the ingredients to keep people coming back—climate, scenery, activities, terrific accommodations and amenities for guests, and of course the Arnold Palmer-designed championship golf course.

The course, the only Palmer designed course in Oregon, has hosted some of the biggest Northwest professional and amateur events since opening.

Washington Resorts

From east to west, Washington offers plenty of golf resorts with more variety

Editor's note: Here's a look at the golf resorts that the state of Washington offers for golfers to tee it up:

Apple Tree Golf Resort

Over the past decade, the Apple Tree Golf Course has become one of the Pacific Northwest's premier golf experiences. Carved from the rolling terrain of 100 year-old orchards, the facility has garnered a 4-star rating by Golf Digest.

But there is one thing you will remember after your round is finished - the apple-shaped 17th green.

The par-3 hole features an elevated tee box with the tee shot being hit to an island green that is shaped like, what else, an apple. The stem is a sand trap and the green itself measures more than 10,000 square feet.

But there's also much more than just the island green. The course stretches to more than 6,900 yards and has strategically placed ponds and structures like a fountain and waterfall.

Apple Tree Resort in Yakima has a course which winds through an apple orchard - and features an apple-shaped green.

Plenty of choices in Washington

Suncadia Resort

One of the newest resorts come on the radar in the state of Washington – Suncadia Resort in Roslyn, in the foothills of the Cascade Mountains.

The first course built is called Prospector and it opened in 2005. The second, the private Tumblecreek opened 2005 and the third, Rope Rider, opened in 2011.

The resort is part of a large housing community with all of the amenities you'd expect to find a top-notch resort. Also open are a hotel, shopping area and more.

With the resort located so close to the Cascade mountains, there are plenty of outdoor options. Snoqualmie Pass skiing area is right up the road.

Skamania Resort

Since opening in 1993, Skamania Lodge has been the perfect type of weekend getaway for golfers around the Pacific Northwest.

Tucked on a bluff overlooking the Columbia River, the Skamania Lodge features a hotel with nearly 200 rooms, a place for businesses to bring in outside conferences and outdoor activities for the non golfers in the group.

The course itself may not be long, measuring 5,800 yards, but it presents plenty of challenges with some tight fairways and stunning views of the Columbia River.

Washington golf resorts: New owner at Semiahmoo; Salish Cliffs award winner

There are also plenty of other things to do nearby, including visiting Multnomah Falls and a walk to the top.

Semiahmoo Resort

Semiahmoo Resort, which is located in Washington's northwest corner in Blaine, offers guests the chance to play, not only the Resort course, but also the Loomis Trail course. Both courses are open to resort guests.

After the resort closed the hotel in 2012, Wright Hotels, a Seattle-based management company, came in to buy the property and pumped millions into renovations.

Semiahmoo Resort with its 198-room destination hotel is back in operation.

The Resort course features an Arnold Palmer designed layout is always a treat to play. It's a great layout and playable for all levels of golfers.

Loomis Trail Golf Club has a different setting, offering some links-style holes and some typical Northwest-style tree-lined holes and water hazards.

Resort at Port Ludlow

Port Ludlow for years has been a golfers favorite. And for good reason, the tranquil setting amongst the trees makes playing the 18-hole course literally a walk in the park.

The resort sits on the northern tip of the Olympic Peninsula with views of two mountain ranges: the Cascade Range and the Olympic Mountains.

Most people who travel to Port Ludlow Resort usually make a day out of it, playing 18 holes and then settling in for the night at one of the resort's condos or the resort hotel on Ludow Bay. There's also plenty to do, including kayaking, bike-riding, hiking and checking out the nearby town of Port Townsend.

Alderbrook Resort and Spa

Alderbrook Resort and Spa in Union, along Hood Canal, presents plenty of dramatic holes in a forest-like setting.

The opening hole starts right out by requiring a straight tee shot and then an even straighter second shot. There's the 18th hole, a downhill par-5, with a panoramic backdrop of the Olympic Mountains. And then there is the infamous S-hole. The 8th hole, an S-shaped par-5 can be one of the toughest holes on the course. The hole goes about 200 yards before bending to the right. Then another 200 yards before it bends back to the left.

Sage Hills Golf & RV Resort

Sage Hills Golf and RV Resort is one of those laid-back places you love to come back to. The course is fun and challenging and the facilities are well maintained.

For RVers there are 42 level sites with full hook-ups. There is also a swimming pool, laundry, a full-service restaurant and lounge that can accommodate up to 100 people. The course is 18 holes with a par of 71 and is located 17 miles south of Moses Lake along highway 17.

Desert Canyon Golf Resort

Desert Canyon features one great hole after another. The Central Washington golf resort also features terrific places to stay along the course, a first-class restaurant and a world-class putting course.

Desert Canyon is also home to one of the longest holes in the Northwest. The sixth hole is a 691-yard par-5 which features great views of the Columbia River and runs along a canyon. There are also other of memorable views with equally stunning views of the Columbia River.

Don Barth, who owns Alta Lake and Rock Island, purchased Desert Canyon a few years ago with Lyn and Rick Anderson.

Kahler Glen Golf Resort

Kahler Glen Golf and Ski Resort, in Leavenworth, features a challenging golf course and plenty of chances to see Central Washington's forested beauty.

There are stay-and-play packages available and plenty of things to do, including hiking, fishing and taking in the sights and sounds of the nearby Bavarian Village of Leavenworth.

And the golf is good, too. What makes the course enjoyable is the hilly-elevated terrain that you must negotiate throughout the 18 holes. The long 12th hole will make you hit everything in your bag. It is a prodigious 630-yard par-5.

Spokane RV Resort

Just north of Spokane, sits the town of Deer Park. And the town is home to the terrific Spokane RV Resort. The golf course is first rate and there are plenty of places to park the RV's - and some good amenities come along with it as well. Free wireless, showers, pool, the works. And Woodall's has given the resort five-star rating as well. It is a place that is definitely worth the time to make the stop.

Little Creek Resort

The Squaxin Island Indian tribe got involved in the resort business with its Little Creek Casino. Then came a hotel. then a concert hall. And then came the award-winning Salish Cliffs Golf Course, designed by Gene Bates in 2012.

The course gives the Little Creek Resort something for everyone.

For those who like a first-class hotel, you are covered. Good food? Covered again. Need to see a show? The resort has your answer.

And now, with the opening of the Salish Cliffs Golf Course, the resort boasts one of the top courses in the Pacific Northwest. In fact, the course was ranked among the top new courses in the country in 2012. The course winds through trees and features plenty of water and sand to keep your attention throughout the round. The driving range is a place that will keep you busy all day as well.

7Cedars Resort

The Jamestown S'kallam Indian Tribe decided to expand its resort when it purchased the Dungeness Golf Club. To go in line with its casino-resort theme, the golf course was renamed the Cedars at Dungeness.

The resort and golf course which are located in Sequim, offer a little of something for everyone. The golf course is one of the driest in the Pacific Northwest, being located in the Olympic Rain Shadow and the casino is loaded with games, entertainment and dining. There is also plenty of sight-seeing to do in the area, located on the Olympic Peninsula.

The Resort at Port Ludlow features resort golf on Washington's Olympic Peninsula.

Clearwater Resort

The Suquamish Indian Tribe first got into the resort business with the opening of its Clearwater Resort near Kingston. And more recently, the tribe bought the White Horse Golf Club to give it yet another amenity for the resort.

The hotel features 85 waterfront rooms, a spa and plenty of meeting spaces to lure businesses in from out of town. The course is a treat, measuring 7,093 yards from the back tees and featuring views of the Puget Sound and Olympic Mountains. And a new clubhouse offers even more to the experience that opened to the public last year.

Carson Hot Springs

Carson Hot Springs has been around for years - but not the Elk Ridge Golf Course. Carson Hot Springs Golf and Spa Resort was established in 1892 and many people have come to enjoy the healing waters in this location, next to the Columbia River on the Oregon-Washington border.

The 1901 St. Martin Hotel still stands and is used as the front office and the original men's and women's bath houses are still being used today. Updates have followed such as new saunas in the bathhouses, new rooms a restaurant on our recently re-opened Elk Ridge course.
