The Central Washington Tour

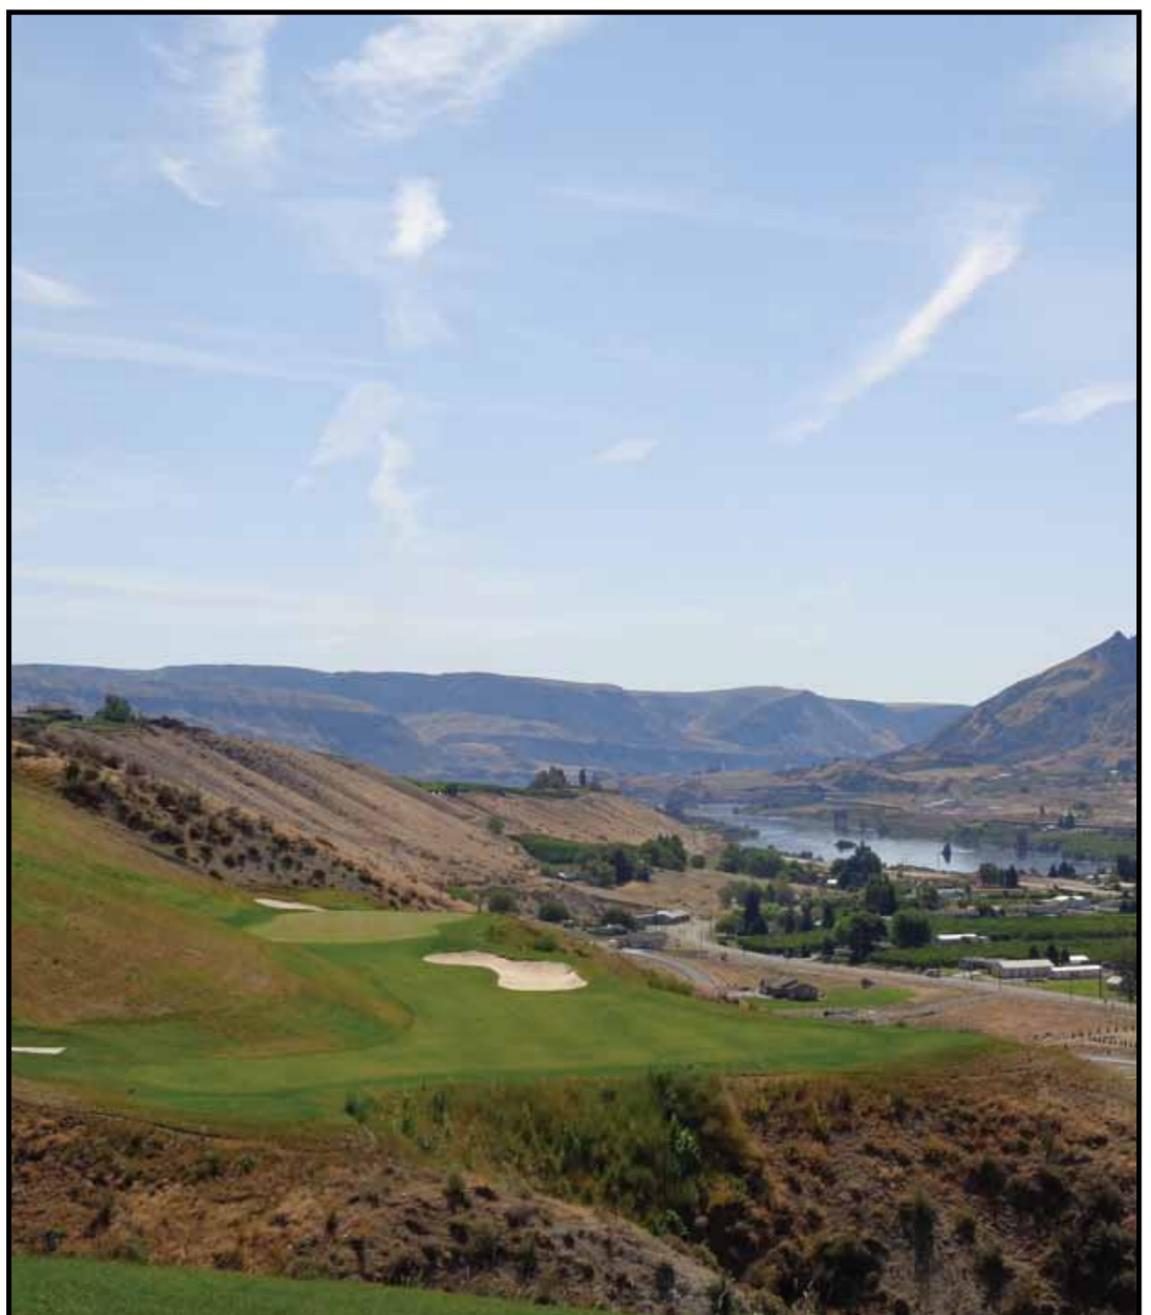

Central Washington is a place that offers some terrific weather and the golf to match

Central Washington just might be an area that has it all when it comes to golf. Whether you are looking for a resort, a desert layout, or tree-lined fairways, somewhere in Central Washington you will find what you are looking for. From Wenatchee to Yakima to the Tri-Cities to Walla Walla, Central Washington has the right kind of weather, the sights, the wineries and, of course, the golf courses.

All of the courses share a great golfing climate that is warmer and dryer than the coastal environment and be prepared for the ball to travel longer with firmer fairways and greens.

Pacific Northwest finally welcomes a new golf course - this one called Gamble Sands

The Pacific Northwest finally can welcome a new golf course in the area. Gamble Sands in Brewster, Wash. The course is set to open Aug. 1 and will be a treat with a stunning backdrop along the banks of the Columbia River.

David McLay Kidd designed the course, calling it a "once in a lifetime site every golf designer dreams of." Kidd also designed the award winning Bandon Dunes course.

The course will play over 7,100 yards from the back tees and features generous fairways and some of the biggest greens you will find, measuring from 6,200 square feet to 16,200 square feet. Sixteen acres of bunkers will also get your attention.

Green fees are $130 for walking and $150 for riding.

Call 509.436.8323 for more information.

Gamble Sands is the first Pacific Northwest golf course to open in years - in Brewster.

Swiftwater Classic at Suncadia

Suncadia Resort will be hosting its Swiftwater Classic at Suncadia Aug. 17-19, 2014 featuring three days of golf, food and more. The tournament will feature two tournament rounds on Suncadia's Roperider Course as well as an optional horserace and par-3 tournament. There will also be a welcome reception and food every day of the tournament.

For information call Brady Hatfield at Suncadia Resort at 1.800.667.1828.

Lake Chelan keeps getting better

If you have teed it up at Lake Chelan Golf Course and have noticed the improved conditioning - there's a reason for it. New superintendent Jared Finch came on a year ago and has helped get the course in mint condition, said head professional Jim Oscarson. Also, the course is bringing in new maintenance equipment to get things even better and a new fleet of golf carts is on the way.

New superintendent Jared Finch has helped turn Lake Chelan into terrific condition.

Winds of change blowing at Othello

Carl Anderson and Jim Deal decided to get into the golf business by leasing Othello Golf Club in Othello, Wash. So far, so good, for the pair. Play is up and they are bringing in new tournaments, which means more golf and more food - which is perfect for Anderson since he was in the catering business.

Pateros Lakeshore Inn now has a golf partner

The Pateros Lakeshore Inn has been a popular place for visiting travelers to stop and enjoy the sights of the Columbia River and Northcentral Washington.

But now the hotel has even more to offer being hooked up with the new Gamble Sands Golf Course in Brewster, located about 15 minutes away.

The Inn and the golf course have put together stay and play deals to attract golfers from outside the area.

The Pateros Lakeshore Inn has rooms that open directly onto a private view of sloping lawns and the Columbia River. And there's more to do than just the golf, including jet skiing, hiking, fishing and more.

Call 1.877.923.955 for more information on the Pateros Lakeshore Inn.

WINE VALLEY GOLF CLUB

Walla Walla, Washington

The Tri-Cities area: Golf through the heart of Wine Country

Golf in the Tri-Cities is more than just 18-holes on any one of ten premiere courses. It's an all around memorable experience with easy access to world-class wine and resort-style amenities without the resort-style price. With 300 days of sunshine and less than seven inches of precipitation a year, golf courses are open year round and conditions are almost always ideal. Each course challenges the golf enthusiast and offers a variety of play for all skill levels.

The Tri-Cities (Kennewick, Pasco, Richland) is Washington Wine Country's epicenter, so after a round or two of golf, there's a choice of over 160 wineries all within a one-hour drive. Some even offer live music, chef's seminars, winemaker's dinners, patio dining, in addition to tasting rooms for sampling. Additionally, the Tri-

Cities is at the confluence of the Snake, Yakima, and Columbia Rivers, which has produced an aquatic playground second to none. Whether it's soaking your feet, power boating, kayaking or sailing, there are many activities to enjoy on the rivers.

Great rates are available on packages that include a round of golf and an overnight stay for two in hotels surrounded by sweeping desert landscapes nestled on the banks of the beautiful Columbia River.

Visitors can log on to www.VisitTri-Cities.com to research information on Golf & Wine Getaways as well as a number of other travel discounts. And while you are touring the wineries, there is plenty of golf nearby to take in, including places like Columbia Point, Horn Rapids, Canyon Lakes, Sun Willows, Buckskin and West Richland golf courses.

Thousands of travelers take in winery tours and tastings when visiting the Tri-Cities area.

Central Washington

From the Tri-Cities to Lake Chelan to Yakima, the Central Washington area has plenty of golf variety to choose from

Looking for a golf outing that will make you feel like you are miles and miles away from anything else? Look no further than Central Washington. With its terrific summer and fall weather and variety of golf courses, Central Washington is a quick drive away and will leave you feeling like you are in another part of the country. Here's a look at what you will find.

Highlander Golf Club

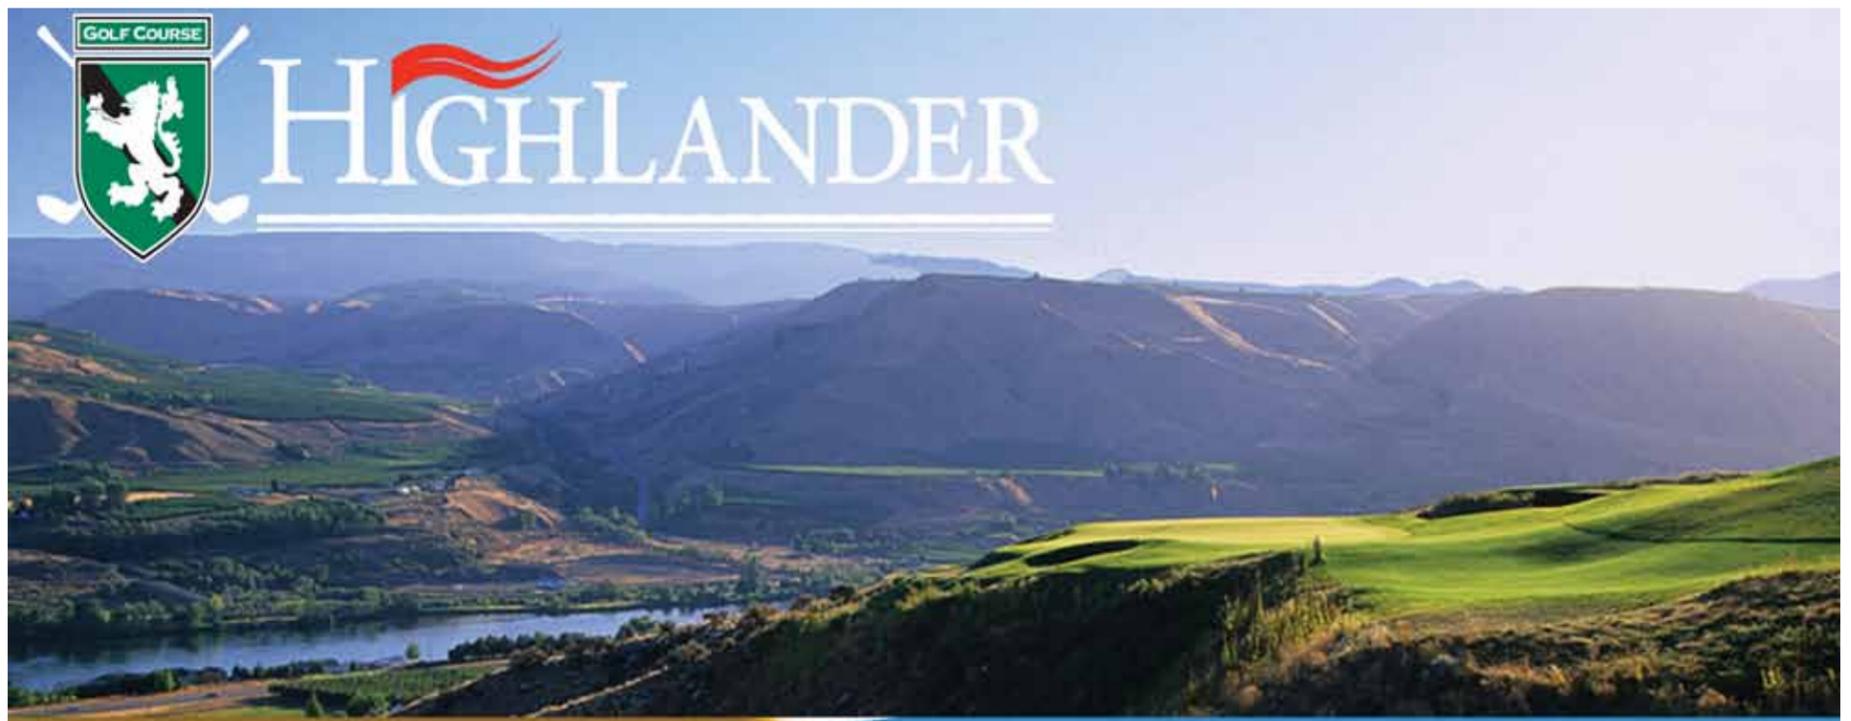

At 800 feet above the Columbia River is a breathtaking piece of property that boasts a golf course designed by John Steidel. This one is called Highlander and it lives up to the name. Laced with incredible views of the Columbia River, Highlander plays to over 6,500 from the back tees.

The most talked about hole is the par-3 ninth, a 185-yard bear that requires a tee shot over a canyon – and you'd better be able to land your ball softly. The green slopes dramatically making a two-putt no easy feat. And after you make the turn you can enjoy the gorgeous back nine that has sweeping views of the river.

In the spring of 2013, the back nine was the focus of many upgrades including the development of Highlander Estates. A 32-home site development with stunning territorial views and fairway fronted building lots creating a community with a decided recreational lifestyle focus. Two brand new holes were built (17 & 18) and major changes to four others (10,14,15,&16) plus the addition of evergreen trees and more water making this par-70 course the buzz of the region.

The course has a fully-stocked golf shop, cafe, covered patio and driving range, complete with extra amenities.

Lake Chelan Golf Course

Ever since it was built in 1970, Lake Chelan Golf Course has always been a popular spot for golfers visiting the area. Located on the lake's north side, Lake Chelan is a solid par-72 golf course that sits on a bluff looking at the 55-mile long lake. The course has three sets of tees to choose from and new superintendent Jared Finch has the course looking better than ever.

There are good holes on this course that provide a nice test for visiting golfers. You can now book tee times online by clicking on www.lakechelangolf.com.

Columbia Point Golf Course

Located in Richland, Columbia Point Golf Course is an upscale daily fee facility built and owned by the City of Richland. Situated near the highway interchange and adjacent to the Columbia River, the course measures 6,571 yards from the back tees.

Nothing too complicated greets the average golfer but the course does have water hazards and numerous bunkers that will need to be avoided. The most recognizable features are the mounds, rolling fairways and large undulating greens. Many of the greens are surrounded by mounds, which makes errant approach shots that much more penal. If your short game is MIA, you might want to put in some practice time on the range before you hit the course.

Leavenworth Golf Course

There's more to the town of Leavenworth than just Bavarian fun like Oktoberfest and the annual Christmas tree Lighting ceremonies.

This is a fun course that might not play long, but with the tall trees lining the fairways it sure seems like it does play longer than its 5,711 yards.

The course got its start in 1927 with nine holes and sand greens. It has come a long ways since then. A second nine was added in 1969.

If it's challenges you want, Leavenworth has what you want. Not only are there the tall trees, there are plenty of hills on just about every hole and some slick putting surfaces.

And don't be surprised if you run into wildlife during your round. In fact, in 1996 Washington State Wildlife officials shot a young black bear with a tranquilizer gun and captured that bear, its mother and another and moved them.

Canyon Lakes Golf Course

Rated 4 1/2 Stars by Golf Digest and one of the top 10 best public courses in the Pacific Northwest, Canyon Lakes in Kennewick is not short on accolades. In addition to the lofty rating, Golf Digest gives Canyon Lakes a nod as one of the top 200 value golf courses in the United States. Not bad for starters.

Then, consider things like the 12th hole, which ranks as the largest green in the Pacific Northwest at 12,000 square feet and the ninth hole, which has been selected as one Canyon Lakes also features a putting course adjacent to the driving range, yet another way for golfers to hone their skills. Canyon Lakes has added a 3,000 square foot Champions Room that is ideal for golf outings, weddings, company parties and special events. And don't forget about the GPS on all of the golf carts.

Wine Valley Golf Club

Walla Walla is no stranger to new vintages. The once-sleepy hamlet in the southeastern corner of the state has become one of the premier wine destinations in the United States. But if you were looking to pair fine public-access golf with wine touring and tasting, the pickings were slim. The uncorking of Wine Valley Golf Club a few years ago changed all that - for the area and for the Pacific Northwest. Ranked the No. 2 course in Washington by Golfweek, Wine Valley has been added to the must-play list for golf enthusiasts. It is also 84th on the list of top Modern Courses.

Wine Valley Golf Club, designed by Oregon native Dan Hixson, blends immense scale, inspiring scenery and strategic challenges into a full-bodied championship golf

Central Washington: Golfers with RVs have options

The summer is the perfect time for RVs and golf to mix. And the Central Washington area has it all. From Sun Country in Cle Elum to Desert Aire to, Quincy Valley Golf Course, Central Washington offers some nice destinations for golfers with RVs. The popularity of Golfers traveling in RVs is growing and golf courses are catering to them. Places like Suntutides, Sun Lakes Resort, Sage Hills, Crescent Bar and Royal City Golf Course have become popular with RV campers. With full hookups, golfers are not just parking, but have the option of staying for several days at a time.

• Suntutides: Suntutides Golf Course in Yakima offers 60 full hook ups for golfers traveling in RVs. There is a laundry room with showers, a dog run and, of course, the 18-hole golf course.

• Desert Aire: Located along the Columbia River, Desert Aire offers 10 RV spots with full hooks and a course that is a treat. The original nine opened in 1972 and the next nine came in 1993. Warm and dry weather is an added bonus. Packages for RV golfers run from $89.

• Sage Hills: The resort is a place where the golf and RVs mix perfectly. The course measures 6,591 yards and is a solid test. There are 40 RV spots with full hookups. And that's not all. The RV area has a recreation facility, swimming pool and picnic area and full service restaurant.

* Sun Lakes Resort: Vic Meyers Golf Course and Sun Lakes Resort were built in 1949, all thanks due to one Vic Meyers himself, former Lieutenant Governor of Washington State. Vic's vision was to turn this chain-link string of lakes 40 miles north of Moses Lake into the "Palm Springs of the Northwest." After some serious lobbying on Vic's part, the 4,000 acre resort was a reality with a 9-hole golf course included. The Sun Lakes Resort is now one of the state's most popular parks.

• Othello Golf Course: Othello Golf Course is a dandy nine-holer that plays like 18 holes with dual tees on every hole. There are some RV spots with electric hookups and space for dry camping. The course is also a gem for tournaments with the traveling golfers with RVs.

• Sun Country Resort: When Jim Hembree was looking for an investment a few years ago, he came across Sun Country Resort near Cle Elum. He liked what he saw, but he knew there could be more. Now, years after buying Sun Country, Hembree has added golf holes and made the facility a standout place for golfers with RVs.

experience. The course is getting some big events already.

Desert Canyon Golf Resort

Desert Canyon has undergone plenty of changes since 2011 from being sold to on-course improvements. Despite the changes, the course continues to be one of the top layouts in the Pacific Northwest.

This 18-hole public facility delivers an experience unmatched in Central Washington. Spectacular desert terrain creates a course with desert style target golf.

The course has received numerous accolades including being named the #1 resort course in the State of Washington, and being ranked as the second best conditioned course in America by Golf Digest. The course is also home to the famous #6 canyon hole, which has been ranked as the 7th best par-5 in America by Golf Digest.

Bear Mountain Ranch

Bear Mountain Ranch Golf Course is truly a beautiful sight for golfer's eyes and will surely leave visitors in awe of its lush grounds. There may not be a more aesthetically pleasing course in the Pacific Northwest.

Set among an incredible natural setting with golf course views that are equally as stunning as the course itself, Bear Mountain Ranch has been a wonderful addition to the Lake Chelan area since the golf course opened in 2005.

At over 7,230 yards from the back tees, Bear Mountain Ranch is a test for the low handicapper, but it also makes sure each and every golfer can find a proper teeing ground with four additional sets of tees. The course uses the natural terrain of carved plateaus and each hole features lake and mountain views. Located three hours from Seattle, Bear Mountain Ranch also features real estate opportunities for those looking to get away from the city.

Horn Rapids Golf Club

Horn Rapids Golf Club, located outside of Richland opened in 1994 and plays true to Central Washington desert-style golf. With multi part fairways that wind through sand and sage, Horn Rapids provides a brilliant contrast of color between desert and greens. Set against high desert mountains, the sloping, slick greens provide plenty of character and demand on your short game.

This par-72 layout is as long as it is challenging. The course plays 6,954 yards from the back tees and boasts a 73.6 rating with a slope of 130. There are also options for less experienced players as well as the forward tees, which plays just over 5,000 yards with a slope of 111.

If you have an RV, Horn Rapids has four full hookup spots and there is Horn Rapids RV Resort, a five-star RV resort, just across the highway with 225 parking spaces.

Moses Pointe Golf Club

Located just four miles north of interstate 90 in Moses Lake, Wash.. Moses Pointe golf course has been a favorite destination for golfers since opening in 1999.

Moses Pointe has played host to the 2005 and 2008 Washington State Amateur Championship as well as the 2011 Pacific Northwest Public Links. While Moses Pointe challenges

Besides fantastic golf, Moses Pointe offers an award winning steakhouse, beautiful clubhouse and well stocked golf shop.

Stop and see for yourself why so many who have played Moses Pointe say, "I love this course!"

Apple Tree Golf Club

Apple Tree in Yakima is a big and beautiful part of the Central Washington golf scene. The course features a signature apple-shaped island green hole that has been highly regarded as one of the state's best. Having been featured in almost every golf publication, the 17th hole is only one of many great holes at this 4-Star rated Golf Digest course. The course is carved through apple orchards as well.

There's plenty to like at Apple Tree. The resort has the terrific golf and some memorable holes that run through an apple orchard. The nearby housing is first class. There are plenty of challenges along the way and well worth the trip to Yakima.

Suncadia Resort

Located in Roslyn, just about an hour drive east of Seattle, Suncadia Resort is a more recent addition to the ever-expanding Central Washington golf destination landscape.

With three courses open, Prospector, the private Tumble Creek and the newest, Rope Rider, Suncadia offers up a trifecta of golf. Prospector meanders through tall pines, with lakes and creeks dotting the landscape of the 18-hole layout while Tumble Creek offers a private golf experience. Rope Rider gets its name from the men who rode the roped coal cars in the nearby mines.

Designed by the Palmer Design Company, Prospector's signature hole is the 10th—a par-4 playing from 318 to over 411 yards. Offering dramatic views of the Cascade Mountains and Cle Elum River Valley, the tee ball falls 120 feet to the fairway.

Othello Golf Course

Othello Golf Course is a place with nine holes, but actually feels like an 18-hole round when you make the tour. There are two sets of tee boxes for the 18 holes giving you a feel for a 6,200-yard course.

RV's are welcome at Othello and the course is under new management with business partners Carl Anderson and Jim Deal running the show. The course has just about everything you need in a round of golf including a couple of water hazards along the way and white sand bunkers.

Kahler Glen Resort

Kahler Glen Golf Resort lives up to its name. If you are a golfer, then the Leavenworth resort (located at Lake Wenatchee) has 18 terrific holes to challenge you. If you are a skier, then there are miles of cross country trails and nearby Stevens Pass for some downhill action.

the winter and summer. And if you happen to be a skier and a golfer, then you are a double winner.

The resort was created in the late 1980s by a couple of logging families, trying to get the best use out of their logging lands in Central Washington. The original nine holes opened for play in 1989 and the second came along in 1995. The course might not be long (measuring 5,893 yards from the tips) but you better hit it straight. Most holes are surrounded by tall trees, giving you the perfect feel for Pacific Northwest golf. Before your round try the unique Aqua driving range, complete with floating greens.

Sun Willows Golf Course

Sun Willows Golf Course, in Pasco, is a Robert Muir Graves designed public 18-hole, par-72 course. It opened in 1963 and was re-designed in 1980 by local golf course architect John Steidel. The club features a pro-shop, driving range and restaurant.

A favorite of Tri-City golfers, it is a traditional and challenging Northwest style course with mature trees that line rolling fairways and large undulating greens. You can play the course from 6,715 yards at the tips or as short as 5,695 yards from the forward tees. There are 32 bunkers and five lakes that will keep you focused.

Sun Willows is also managed by the same group that runs Columbia Point Golf Course.

Buckskin: Golf Course

Buckskin Golf Club in Pasco is a nine-holer, designed and operated by Jeff Marcum. In fact, Marcum is so hands-on you will find him doing just about anything at the course including mowing greens and working behind the counter.

Marcum has worked hard to keep the course in good shape. It's a good place to go if you are looking for that quick, challenging round and the perfect kind of place that golfers head to for a quick round before or after work.

West Richland Golf Course

Things are getting newer at West Richland, as it opened up a new clubhouse a few years ago. The course is a daily fee 18-hole regulation par-71 links-style course that is playable and fair - and especially popular with beginners because of the relatively tame layout. The price is always right at West Richland, too.

The course is also host to one of the largest Pro-Am's in the Pacific Northwest every year which attracts the professionals from around the NW to play for a big purse.

Alta Lake, Rock Island Courses

Owner Don Barth got his golf ownership start with Alta Lake Golf Course and then took over the operations at Rock Island. Alta Lake, located in Pateros, now has 18 holes and a hotel allows golfers to stay on site. Every room in the lodge has a view of the golf course and there is a swimming pool and area for picnics or to just stretch out in the Eastern Washington sunshine.

Rock Island located near Wenatchee became an 18-hole course a few years ago with the opening of a new nine, designed by Barth. Nothing wrong here either, especially with the 13th hole, a dogleg that runs along a large water hazard.

The Lodge at Desert Canyon

golfers to enjoy the desert in spring, summer, fall and winter. All accommodations are beautifully furnished with the finest amenities including a television in the living room and bedroom of every suite. Come relax in the peace and quiet of the desert. One, two and four bedroom units are available.

Desert Aire Golf Course

Located along the Columbia River, Desert Aire offers 10 RV spots with full hookups and a course that is a treat. The original nine opened in 1972 and the next nine came in 1993. Views of the Columbia River are an added bonus. Packages for RV golfers run from $89.

Sage Hills Golf and RV Resort

The resort is a place where the golf and RVs mix perfectly. The course measures 6,591 yards and is a solid test. Nearby, there are 40 RV spots with full hooks ups. And that's not all, the RV area has a recreation facility, swimming pool and picnic area.

Vic Meyers Course at Sun Lakes

The nine-hole Vic Meyers course and Sun Lakes Resort make for a popular destination for many Pacific Northwest travelers and golfers. Located 40 minutes north of Moses Lake, the resort has been a hit for the weather and the water. And now the golf is making people head that way, too. FYI: Vic Meyers is a former Lt. Governor of Washington.

Sun Country Resort

For golfers with RVs Sun Country has always been a place worth stopping. Even for those without RVs, the Sun Country Resort has a challenging 18-course worth the trip to Cle Elum. There are full hookups for RVs at Sun Country and the new nine holes, that was added a few years ago, makes the golf worth the trip to Eastern Washington.

Pendleton's Wildhorse a great option when traveling Central Washington

Nestled in the foothills of the Blue Mountains, you'll find 18 holes of spectacular golf, featuring beautiful lakes, long fairways and deep bunkers. Designed by legendary golf architect, John Steidel, the Wildhorse Resort course can play long or short with four sets of tees ranging from 5,718 yards at the front to 7,128 yards from the championship tees. There is also a full-service Pro Shop, driving range, practice green and clubhouse Grill.

The 100-space RV Park is a great way to enjoy everything Wildhorse has to offer. 24-hour gaming, golf, live entertainment, dining, shopping and our Tamástlikt Cultural Institute are all just minutes away. The park features hook-ups for sewer, water and electrical and provides shuttle transportation to and from the casino and a free continental breakfast.

More than just a visitor attraction, Tamástlikt Cultural Institute helps document and preserve the past, present and future traditions and practices of the Cayuse, Umatilla and Walla Walla Tribes. Inside the 45,000 square foot facility, you'll discover world-class exhibits, a Museum Store, the Kinship Café, state-of-the art meeting facilities and 10,000 years of living history.
