TIME TO PLAY Golf Again

Long-time Pacific NW professional makes a move home to Wenatchee

Pat Huffer has been around Pacific Northwest golf his entire life. From growing up in Chelan, Wash. he has done just about everything when it comes to the golf business in the Northwest. He played junior golf and high school golf in Chelan and Wenatchee. He played college at the University of Washington and he has been a long tenured professional at places like Roseburg Country Club and Crooked River Ranch.

Now, at age 67, Huffer is off on another challenge after taking Head PGA Professional position at Wenatchee Golf & Country Club, taking advantage as sort of a homecoming. "I grew up in Chelan and played a lot of golf in the area," Huffer says. "It's been fun to see a lot of people I haven't seen in years."

Huffer grew up golfing in Chelan as his dad Ron was a long-time schoolteacher and coach at Chelan high school. In fact, the 91-year-old Ron still plays a couple of times a week at Lake Chelan Golf Course.

Huffer first thought he had a job he would never leave when he was in Roseburg at both Roseburg Country Club and then Stewart Park Golf Course (a city owned course) for a total of 24 years. A long time for sure, but then he was off to Central Oregon and Crooked River Ranch where he was the head professional for nearly 15 years. Another job he thought for sure he would retire from.

But then Wenatchee Golf & Country Club came calling and Huffer saw the chance to head home with his wife Patty of almost 38 years. In fact, he and Patty met on a blind date and got married in Ellensburg when he was working at the Ellensburg Golf and Country Club.

Heading back to Central Washington gives Huffer a chance to be near his father and his brother Mike, a retired police officer. And a chance to see many friends that he lost touched with, including some who are members at his new club.

"I've been around the block, that's for sure," he said.

Grant County: Area has plenty to offer visitors with its variety of courses and outdoor activities

Grant County is located smack dab in the middle of the state of Washington. You might not notice anything special about the area when you are traveling at 70 miles per hour on Interstate-90 from Seattle to Spokane, but this is a county that has plenty to offer.

As far as the golf goes in Grant County, there is no shortage of courses. With places like Vic Meyers at Sun Lakes, Banks Golf and Country Club, Oasis RV Golf Course, Desert Aire Golf Course, Moses Pointe Golf Links, Legacy Golf Resort at Frenchman Hills, Colockum Ridge Golf Course, Crescent Bar Golf Course, Royal Golf Course, Lakeview Golf Course, Lava Links Desert Golf and Sage Hills Golf Course, there is a wide variety of golf to be found.

A driving force for golfing in Grant County is the year-round availability of courses and the weather. Some of the courses offer desert golf, others are perched on a lake while others are built beneath basalt walls.

Off the course, there is plenty that the county has to offer when it comes to wineries and microbreweries. Some of the wineries include Beaumont Cellars, Camas Cove Cellars, Cave Estate Cellars, Cascade Cellars, Chris Daniel, Errant Cellars, Ginkgo Forest Winery, Jones of Washington, Nelli Cellars, Foxy Rosy Winery, White Heron Cellars and Winchester Estate Winery. A pair of microbreweries include Ten Pin Brewing Co. and St. Brigid's Brewery, both located in the town of Moses Lake.

Grapes grown in sun-drenched Grant County become some of the state's most impressive award winning premium wines. Many Grant County wineries feature tasting rooms and a calendar of events.

Governor of Washington who was responsible for getting it build. Sun Lakes Park Resort has always been a hot spot, no pun intended, for golfers and non-golfers alike. adjacent to the Columbia River. The course is owned by the City of Richland and measures 6,571 yards from the back tees. It celebrated its 20th year in 2017.

Nothing too complicated greets the average golfer but the course does have water hazards and numerous bunkers that will need to be avoided. The most recognizable features are the mounds separating several of the rolling fairways and large undulating greens. If your short game is MIA, you might want to put in some practice time on the range before you hit the course. Columbia Point has a full-service restaurant/bar with a covered patio and panoramic views of the front nine.

Horn Rapids Golf Course

Horn Rapids Golf Club, located outside of Richland is a true desert-style golf course. The sloping, slick greens provide plenty of character and will challenge your short game.

Highlander Golf Club

This one is called Highlander and it lives up to the name with magnificent panoramic views of the river and surrounding hills.

The most talked about hole is the par-3 ninth, a 185-yard bear that requires a tee shot across a steep gulch. The green slopes dramatically making a two-putt no easy feat. In 2011 many deciduous trees were added to the front nine, a spectacular water feature was added between holes two and three.

In the spring of 2013, the back nine was the focus of many upgrades including the development of Highlander Estates with some scenic home sites with stunning territorial views and fairway fronted building lots creating a community with a decided recreational lifestyle focus. Two brand new holes were built (17 & 18) and major changes to four others (10,14,15,&16) plus the addition of evergreen trees and more water making this par-70 course the buzz of the region.

Canyon Lakes Golf Course

Leavenworth Golf Course

There's more to the town of Leavenworth than just Bavarian fun like Oktoberfest, Mayfest and the annual Christmas Tree Lighting ceremonies. Leavenworth Golf Course is a short drive from downtown and is surrounded by mountains. The Wenatchee River flows beside the course where you might see some fun loving partiers drifting by during the summer months. If you had to choose one word to describe Leavenworth Golf Course, it would be peaceful or quiet or scenic.

This is a fun course that might not play long but with the tall trees lining the fairways it sure seems like it does play longer than its 5,711 yards. Not only are there the tall trees but the greens are small targets putting pressure on your short game. And don't be surprised if you run into wildlife during your round. In fact, in 1996 officials shot a young black bear with a tranquilizer gun and captured that bear, its mother and another one and moved them.

Suncadia Resort

Suncadia is a planned resort community in Cle Elum about an hour's drive from Seattle. There are three courses: Prospector and Rope Rider the public courses and the private Tumble Creek. There is plenty to like with the resort, including miles of bike trails, a hotel on site and some outdoor recreations areas for home owners and visitors.

Othello Golf Course

Othello Golf Course is a nine-hole course with two sets of tee boxes giving you the feel of a 6,200-yard course. There is a nice full-service restaurant on property with a huge deck overlooking the course and space for a few overnight RVs with electric hookups.

West Richland Golf Course

The course is a daily fee 18-hole regulation links-style course that is playable and fair - and especially popular with beginners because of the relatively tame layout. The price is always right at West Richland, too. The course is also host to one of the largest Pro-Am's in the Pacific Northwest every year which attracts the professionals from around the NW to play for a big purse.

Alta Lake, located in Pateros, now has 18 holes and a hotel allows golfers to stay on site. Every room in the lodge has a view of the golf course and there is a swimming pool and area for picnics or to just stretch out in

Banks Lake Golf Course

Often goes unnoticed as it is a bit off the beaten path in Electric City. This 18-hole public course opened in 1985 and is owned by the Port of Douglas County but run by volunteers. The course is 6,359 from the back tees with a slope of 119. There is also a driving range and restaurant at the course. As with most courses, due to the COVID-19 restrictions, some of the amenities are closed – the course remains open however.
